Bukhara

Nukus

Khiva

Termez

Shahrissabz

Nukus

In brief: There are four must see cities in Uzbekistan and this classical itinerary includes three additional cities: Termez, Shahrissabz, Nukus, and Muynak. Termez is an excellent place to learn about the mysteries of ancient Buddhist culture, while in Shahrissabz you will have the opportunity to visit the birthplace of Tamerlane. Nukus is the home of the world-famous I. Savitskiy Art Museum, and is an excellent point of departure to visit Muynak and the desolation of the Aral Sea. All seven cities are unique and different from one to the other: Khiva is an actual open-air museum; Bukhara is rich in history and dramatic, Islamic architecture; Samarkand will give you the feel of being a part of the famous story, "1001 Nights"; Tashkent amazes everybody with its wide boulevards, green parks, and vibrant night life.

Day by Day Itinerary

Day 1 Tashkent

As soon as you arrive at the Tashkent International Airport, our outstanding support staff will meet you and whose duty is to help you with all border formalities, assistance in collecting your baggage, and filling out the proper declaration forms. They are very helpful, especially if you are traveling with your family or with a big group since airports and formalities can be a challenge.

Once you have cleared customs, you will be met by a representative of our company who will welcome you to Uzbekistan and escort you to your hotel. Of course, they are there to assist you with your hotel accommodations and answer any questions you have.

After you have rested from your long journey, we will start your tour in the capital of Uzbekistan – the biggest city in Central Asia. While many parts of the old city were destroyed – by a terrible earthquake in 1966, it was rebuilt in a very short period through the help of people throughout the.

However, some parts of the old city survived the earthquake and were able to flourish as before. This part of the city is called Chorsu (i.e. Old City) and will include visiting such sites of historic importance as the Barak Khan Madrasa with its gorgeous turquoise domes and intricate tile work; Jami Mosque (Friday Mosque); the Kaffal Shashi Mausoleum – the poet and scholar; the library of the Institute Al Bukhari, which houses a sacred Koran dating from the seventh century, the only 4th preserved Koran of Osman.

Afterwards, you will enjoy your time in the newer part of the city with its wide boulevards, green, spacious parks, Independence Square, Alisher Navoi Theater, Amir Temur Square, and the Monument of Courage, which is dedicated to the victims of the earthquake in 1966.

Day 2 Tashkent – Nukus

After breakfast, we will take you to the airport for your flight to Nukus. Total flight time is about 1 hour 45 minutes.

Your driver will meet you at the airport and take you to Muynak to visit the withering Aral Sea. Other points of interest are the Cemetery of Dead Ships and the monument to the people who sacrificed their lives during World War II.

Return to Nukus where you will be accommodated in your hotel for rest and relaxation.

Day 3 Nukus – Khiva

In the morning, you will visit the I. Savitskiy Museum to see one of the most unique art collections in the world; learn about his work and difficulties he faced to build this collection. Following this, you will visit the Mazlumkhan Sulgu Mausoleum (14th c.), the of Shamun Nabig Mausoleum (12-13th c.); Halika Erjep Madrassah (9-13th cc.); and the Old Town Ali Belgisiz (16-17th cc.). Once we've completed this, we will commence our drive to Khiva. On the road, we will visit the Ayas- Kala, Tuprak-Kala, Kirk Kiz – Kala, fortress ruins that were estimated to have been constructed in the 4th – 3rd B.C. Upon your arrival in Khiva, you will be taken to the historic part of the city where your hotel is located.

Day 4 Khiva

In the morning, you will start your Icahn Kala (internal city wall) tour with our local guide. Your visit to historic section of the city will include: Kunya-Ark Fortress and the Kurinish Khana (17 c.); Mohammed-Amin-Khan Madrassah (19 c.), Islam Khodja Minaret; Palvan-Kari complex; Abd Al Bobo complex (18 c.); Rafanek Madrassah; Mohammed Rakim Khan (19 c.); Amir-Tur Madrassah; Sho-I-Kalandar Bobo Mausoleum. Lunch time - we recommend having your lunch at the national house. Get acquainted with an Uzbek family, sample delicious Uzbek dishes, and experience their world-famous hospitality!

Continuing city tour:

Mazari Sharif Madrassah; Kheivak Well (10 c.); Uch Avlioli (Three Saints) Mausoleum; Jami Mosque (18 c.); Kutluq-Murad Inaq Madrassah (19 c.); Pakhlavan Mahmoud Mausoleum.

Free time at your leisure.

Day 5 Khiva – Bukhara

Today, we'll drive from Khiva across the Kyzyl Kum desert to the great city of Bukhara. Kyzyl Kum (Red Sand) is the eleventh largest desert in the world. Our drive will follow along the banks of the Amu Darya River (Oxus). This will be an excellent opportunity to photograph this historic river, the largest in Central Asia, and camels along the road. Your picnic/lunch will be at an oasis in the middle of Karakum desert. (The lunch boxes are prepared free of charge by Roxana Tour). Arrival in Bukhara and accommodation at the hotel.

Free time for leisure.

Recommended place for dinner: Lyab-i-Hauz – a cozy pond in the center of the ancient part of the city where people come together to have a drink and dinner. Relax as you watch Uzbek life take place before your eyes.

Day 6 Bukhara

Your personal guide will come to pick you up at the hotel and you can start exploring the fabulous caravan city of Bukhara. UNESCO, in naming Bukhara a World Heritage site, states: "It is the most complete example of a medieval city in Central Asia, with an urban fabric that has remained largely intact." You will have an active day by visiting: Lyab-i-Hauz – a cozy pond where local people get together for a cup of tea; Madrassahs – to learn about ancient Islamic schools: Nadir Divanbegi – Madrassah (17 c.); Magoki Attari (16 c.), Ulug Beg (15 c.), Abdul Aziz (17 c.).

Registan Ensemble, Ark Fortress (16 c.) and Bolo-Hauz complex (18 c.). There is plenty to see after lunch: Visit to Ismael Samani Mausoleum (9-10 c.) – the vault of the Bukhara rulers' dynasty; Chor-Minor, Chashma-Ayub Mausoleums (14 c.); Bukhara local bazaar.

Visit to Old Bukhara: Poli-Kalon ensemble including Minaret (12 c.); Mosque (15 c.); functioning Madrassah Miri-Arab (16 c.); Amir Alim-Khan Madrassah (14 c.); Taqi (trading domes); Kukeldash Madrassah (16 c.); short drive outside of the city to visit the Sitorai Makhi Khosa, popularly known as the last Emir's Summer Palace.

In the evening you can enjoy a national concert of Central Asian music, dancing, and a demonstration of our national clothes.

After the show you will visit a local family to experience Uzbek lifestyle and hospitality; and participate in a master class of making plov – our national dish from rice. (Should be re-confirmed by your local guide).

Day 7 Bukhara – Samarkand

Enjoy your morning at leisure in Bukhara. This is an excellent opportunity to shop, photograph, or just take a relaxing stroll among the ancient monuments and the old narrow streets.

After lunch, we will drive to our next destination, the beautiful city of Samarkand. On the road, we will have several stops: Gijduvan, a village famous for traditional pottery crafts. You will see a demonstration of the making of traditional bowls, dishes, handicrafts, and handmade textiles (suzanes). This is the perfect place to find souvenirs. Rabat Mallik Caravan Sarai, a motel for traders along the Silk Road (10 c.).

Upon your arrival in Samarkand, we will take you to your hotel for rest and relaxation.

Day 8 Samarkand

We head out to explore this remarkable city, one of the most romantic in the world. This was the center of Tamerlane's empire, immortalized in the words of Edgar Allen Poe: "Look 'round thee now on Samarkand! Is not she queen of Earth?" Tamerlane (Timur, 1336-1405) was a descendent of Genghis Khan, but Turkic-speaking and steeped in Persian and Islamic culture. He is credited with dismantling the Mongolian Empire and establishing the great Mughal Empire that eventually stretched all the way to India, where it would last for centuries. Visiting: Guri Emir – Legendary mausoleum where Amir Temur and all his family buried.

Registan Square – World famous complex of 3 madrasahs and the golden domed mosque.

Mosque Bibi Khanum – The biggest mosque ever built in Central Asia as gift to Tamerlane from his wife.

Siyab local bazaar – unique place where you can get acquainted with the life of Samarkand's people; Shahi - Zinda necropolises, a holy place and cemetery with graves from the Timurid Dynasty, and the grave of the cousin of the Prophet Mohammed.

Observatory of Ulugbek – incredible, ancient construction from the 15th century for studying astronomy.

If you are interested in visiting the winery and carpet factory, please do not hesitate to ask your guide/driver.

Your dinner can be organized at Nigina's Family House, a national treasure recognized by UNESCO. (Re-confirm with your guide or driver).

Day 9 Samarkand – Shahrisabz – Termez

Today we will have a long day. We start our trip by winding our way through the breathtaking Takhtakaracha Mountain Pass (Elev. 1,788 m) that will take us to Shahrisabz, the birthplace of Tamerlane. This town possesses three popular attractions: Ak – Saray; the ruins of Timur's

Palace; Kuk Gumbaz – the Friday mosque; and the Mausoleum of Jahangir, the son of Amir Timur. From there, we will depart for Termez. After our long day, we will go straight to the hotel for rest and relaxation.

Day 10 Termez

Today, our tour is divided into three historically important periods:

Modern Termez: Murch Bobo Mosque, Termez Archeological Museum

Buddhist Termez: Monastery complex Kara Tepe, Fayz Tepe Buddhist Temple and monastery, Zurmala Tower (stupa)

Medieval Termez: Al Khakim at Termeziy complex, Paygambar Island-Zul Kifla mausoleum, Kirk Kiz Kala (fortress), Sultan Saodat ensemble, Koki Dara, Khanagha.

Free time to rest and relax.

Day 11 Termez – Samarkand

Today, we will return to Samarkand. During your road trip, we will stop at the Takhtakaracha Mountain Pass to photograph the awe-inspiring scenery, and we'll stop to visit some fruit bazaars along the way. When we arrive in Samarkand we'll take you straight to your hotel for a well-deserved rest. Feel free to stroll the city to experience Samarkand.

Day 12 Samarkand – Tashkent

After a leisurely breakfast, you are free to continue your exploration of Samarkand. Please remember that your driver is available to take you anywhere you wish. We'd like to recommend a visit to Registan Square or to the famous Central Bazaar.

Transfer to Tashkent

Have your cameras handy! While on road, enjoy a small picnic to view the mountain pass near the legendary gate of Tamerlane's ancient state. Other stops include the second largest river in Central Asia, the Sirdarya, a local fish market, and road side bazaars where the best melons in the world are sold. Depending on the season, there will be another stop at one of the many cotton fields.
